

Score	Cigar	Price
95	1. Padrón 1964 Anniversary Series "A "	$32.00
	I smoked this masterpiece at the Breakers in Palm Beach and was in pure bliss for over 3 hours. A throwback to the Cuban Montecristo A.
94	2. E.P. Carrillo Edición Inaugural 2009	$13.00
	I smoked this at the Breakers Pool overlooking the Atlantic Ocean. This is a perfectly blended complex cigar similar to a Montecristo #2 in that respect, in that you could smoke one every day for several days and never tire of it.
94	3. Padrón Family Reserve No. 45 Maduro 94	$25.00
	I purchased the first box of these sold at the Factory Store in Little Havana, Miami. I have since smoked several of them and they keep getting better each time. They satisfy my Cigar cravings like a Thanksgiving Turkey satisfies hunger.
93	4. C.A.O. La Traviata Divino	$5.00
	I just smoked my first of these less than one week ago before watching Avatar at City Place in West Palm Beach. This cigar is as good a cigar, as Avatar is a movie. A fabulous cigar that should perhaps be rated even higher, especially when you consider the price of only $5.00. Best Deal of the Year.
95	5. La Flor Dominicana Salomon	$23.00
	I had one of these for lunch at Cigar Loft & Lounge in San Mateo when they first came out. They opened the beautiful box and revealed these even more beautiful cigars. This cigar delivers the elegant taste you expect from the Salomon shape.
93	6. Partagas Presidente Salomon	£19.00 (Cuba)
	I picked up two of these from a secret location in Palo Alto and smoked them with my Cuban Partner-in-Crime; Richard, while walking around Los Gatos for the Art and Wine Festival. Again, a rewarding Salomon which nailed that elegant aged cigar taste.
93	7. Ashton Virgin Sun Grown Spellbound	$13.00
	I picked up one of these from Burlingame Tobacconists, my first favorite cigar store. A classy cigar with old world charm that can take your breath away.
93	8. Alec Bradley Prensado Gran Toro	$12.00
	I picked up one of these last week in Florida at Smoke Inn. Alec Bradley has released many great new lines this year, of which this received the highest rating.
92	9. Cohiba Siglo VI Gran Reserva	£85.00 (Cuba)
	At nearly $150.00 U.S. dollars a cigar, these are not only hard to find, but also hard to afford. I did however smoke several Cohiba Siglo VI's this year, and so can attest to this cigars greatness.
92	10. Xikar HC Habano Colorado Robusto	$9.00
	Xikar sent me a box of these and so I handed out about 12 to friends around the office. After smoking one I wish I would have hoarded them all. Honestly, this cigar really impressed me.
